

RENNINGERS FLEA MARKET - MOUNT DORA

RULES & REGULATIONS

1. HOURS OF OPERATION: Vendors must be set up and ready to do business by 8:00 am and remain open until 4:00 pm.
2. BOOTH RENTAL: All spaces are assigned at the office and are pre-paid. Any space remaining vacant may be re-rented after 9am. Monthly rent is due the last weekend of the preceding month. Weekly rent is due the weekend prior to the rental. There are no refunds. Any rent not paid in full by the due date, will be assessed a late fee of $5.00 per booth, per week. If any vendor becomes 30 days or more past due, vendor agrees that the Market shall have the right to place a lien on any of the vendor's inventory and fixtures in vendor's space or elsewhere in the Market for any unpaid rent or other obligation of the vendor to the Market. In order to satisfy said lien, after 30 days, vendor authorizes the Market to sell vendor's merchandise left in vendor's space or in storage at a public or private sale without any further notice to vendor and to apply the proceeds from the sale of said merchandise to the expenses of the sale, the storage fee, the vendors obligation for rent, and any excess to the vendor.

Daily Rentals can be made beginning at 12pm on the Sunday prior to the week space is desired and are available on a first come first serve basis. For those wishing to keep the same booth, payment must be made prior to 12pm on the Sunday prior. All payments need to be made by check or cash. Credit card payments are accepted over the phone. There are no refunds given.

3. MOVE OUT POLICY: All Permanent Vendors are expected to give 2 weeks written notice prior to vacating their spaces. If merchandise is left in the space after vacating, it will be stored at the vendor's expense. Renninger's assumes no liability for damage or loss during this time period. All items will be considered abandoned property if not claimed within 7 days.
4. A $25.00 fee will be assessed on all returned checks.
5. RENTED SPACE: All booths are rented for vending items per square foot and all merchandise is expected to be within your rented area. Do not place any items in the aisle way, it creates an unsafe obstacle. You are expected to keep all spaces neat, clean, organized, and free of dirt and debris.
6. LICENSES: The State of Florida requires all vendors to have a Florida Sales Tax Certificate issued by the Department of Revenue. All vendors are required to collect and remit sales tax to the Department of Revenue. Food handlers are also required to obtain a Department of Health or Department of Agriculture license. Vendors who sell plants, prepackaged food, or other perishables are required to possess a Department of Agriculture license.
7. INSURANCE: Vendors that leave merchandise overnight do so at their own risk. The Market is not responsible for any liability arising out of the careless or negligent acts of vendors, their families, or their employees or for any injuries sustained by vendors or employees of vendors. Vendors should obtain adequate property liability insurance to cover their property and liability. In the event the Market is sued for any negligent acts of any vendor, the Market's insurance company will subrogate against said vendor for the full amount of any loss paid. All food stands that cook and prepare food must possess required liability insurance. All vendors that provide a service on property must possess required liability insurance. Failure to obtain necessary liability insurance can result in automatic termination.
8. UTILITY CHARGES: Anyone who uses electricity will be subject to a weekly/monthly upcharge per item. Fair assessment of usage will be made and calculated based on our utility guidelines. The Market reserves the right to continuously assess vendors who use utilities and charge appropriately. The following are examples of some items that are over and above normal usage: Microwaves, Hot plates, Coffee Pots, and Small Refrigerator $20 per month per item; Standard Refrigerator or freezer $40 per month per item. Heater, Air Conditioning Unit, Walkin Coolers, Cold Display Cases, etc. will be calculated per item per instance, call office prior to use. We will not be held liable for loss of any items due to power loss or failure.
